The Kittredge Civic Association produces the Kittredge Canyonfest which features games, raffle, arts and crafts, demonstrations, displays, food and refreshments, live music and other entertainment.

The Kittredge Canyonfest is held annually in the Kittredge Community Park adjacent to Highway 74, on the west end of the town of Kittredge. Ample parking is within walking distance of the park. Food vendors must have a valid Jefferson County Health Department license to sell food to the public off their site. Sales tax collection is the responsibility of each individual vendor. Attendance is normally 500-1000 during the event.
